Cook with the best.....

E-News No. 16
July 2010

This month we have some great offers from Scanpan, in Denmark-makers of some of the finest cookware around.

The SCANPAN Classic griddle pan really is the ultimate and a must for anyone who likes to grill meat, fish or vegetables. It has a superb non-stick titanium surface which allows you to cook without the use of fat and is really easy to clean; ridges which are ideally spaced and of a perfect height to give the right spread of heat; a base that won't warp; and a truly secure handle which is oven-proof up to 260°C.

The extra thick, forge cast base and thick side walls give quick and even heat distribution for a perfect cooking every time.

Scanpan patented technology has produced a superb non-stick surface that gives perfect release every time. It:

- is very durable - it will never peel or blister.
- is quick and easy to clean.
- does not need to be oiled or seasoned.
- is ideal for healthy, low fat, cooking.
- can also be used at high temperatures to sear meat.
- metal utensils may be used with care.

The 27cm square grillpan heats up quickly. The rapid heat transfer ensures even heat distribution across the pan – with no annoying "hot spots".

The sturdy base will always stay flat - it will never warp or buckle.

It is suitable for use on all hobs, except induction, and is sturdy enough to be used regularly on an Aga.

-and comes with a 10 year guarantee
